IDAHO STATE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE NAMES STATE VETERINARIAN AND ADMINISTRATOR OF ANIMAL INDUSTRIES DIVISION

BOISE – The Idaho State Department of Agriculture (ISDA) announced today that Dr. William Barton will assume the duties of State Veterinarian and Administrator of the Division of Animal Industries. Dr. Barton has been acting Administrator since late February.

Dr. Barton joined the team at ISDA in 2006 and previously served in the capacity of bureau chief for the Animal Health Division. Prior to his employment at ISDA, Dr. Barton co-owned the Donnelly Veterinary Hospital, a mixed animal practice in Donnelly.

Dr. Barton graduated from the University of Idaho in 1985 with a Bachelor of Science degree in animal science. He received his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Kansas State University's College of Veterinary Medicine in 1989.
