FARMLAND SCREENS AT THE EGYPTIAN THEATER IN BOISE

(Boise) – Farmland, a new documentary, by Oscar® and two-time Emmy® winning filmmaker, James Moll will be screened at the Egyptian Theatre in Boise, ID on Wednesday, August 6, 2014, at 6 p.m. The film gives us an up close and personal look at some of the young American farmers and ranchers who grow and raise food.

WHAT: Farmland Screening

WHEN: Wednesday, August 6 at 6 p.m.

WHERE: 700 W Main St, Boise, ID 83702

The evening will also include a panel of Idaho farmers and ranchers discussing some of the most important current agricultural issues.

Celia Gould, Director of the Idaho State Department of Agriculture, highlighted the importance of having a wide audience in attendance for the event. "We hope this event serves as a catalyst for greater understanding and communication between the agricultural community and consumers."

Informational packets will be provided to local media shortly. Tickets for the event can be reserved by calling (208) 332-8502 or emailing anna.pratt@agri.idaho.gov. A suggested donation of $5 will be accepted at the door, and all proceeds will go to the Idaho Foodbank.
